POLICY:
The philosophy of this department is one of professionalism and service to the community. This concept can be accomplished only through the cooperation and support of all employees. The conduct of all employees, both on and off the job, is a reflection to the public of the profession of law enforcement. It is the policy of this department that all employees conduct themselves at all times, both on and off duty, in such a manner as to reflect most favorably on the department.

PROCEDURES:

9. Duty

f. (5) All occupants riding in a departmental vehicle, including prisoners, shall be required to wear a seatbelt. If the seat belting of a prisoner is impractical, or it would pose a danger to the officer or the prisoner, the prisoner may be transported without being belted into the vehicle. Employee judgment and discretion are required in these circumstances. See Chapter 38 - Prisoner Transportation.
